Land with 7200m2, rural stone building and well for sale

Land in rural area with 7200m2 of area, consisting mainly of olive trees, two apple trees and some pine and medium-sized holm oaks. Accessibility to the land is made through a dirt path and is 3 km from two villages and relatively close to the town of Castelo Branco (12km from the center). Upon arriving at this property, we are welcomed by a large plot with some olive trees and when going through its internal access, we arrive at a very private and quiet place where we find a rural stone building with 16m2 of implantation currently used as storage / agricultural support and even in front of a well with a land that was already used as a vegetable garden. It has enough luminosity, however, the presence of trees creates a harmonious balance between shadow and light. Ideal for those looking for a land where to create their vegetable garden, small farm, or even live in a self-sustaining way. Talk with your ADN and learn more about this property.
