4 bedroom villa with backyard

Partially renovated villa, with 4 bedrooms, 1 living room with fireplace, 2 bathrooms, 1 backyard, attic and basement located in the charming village of Sobral do Campo. This villa is of old construction, with stone walls 70cm thick which gives it a thermal behavior suitable for the local climate, but all the walls have been properly restored and painted. It is equipped with 2 new air conditioners, a fireplace in the living room, a floating floor, plasterboard false ceilings with led spotlights, a kitchen with a countertop and new equipment where it has a large window that guarantees you sun exposure / natural light in this room with a view and direct access to the backyard where you can pick beautiful lemons from the lemon tree that is there. Also on this floor we have a bathroom with shower tray with shelter and window that gives it light and natural air. The backyard has a lot of privacy due to the large walls around it and a lot of sunlight due to being south facing, it has direct access to the basement and a street at the back of the house through a man door.

The basement has direct access to the public street in front of the villa or to the backyard at the back of the villa. In the basement we have two compartments that can serve as storage, a wine cellar, a shop, a space to develop your hobbies, or any other use you want, and there is also a toilet to support this floor with a shower base and window to ensure light and natural air in this room. In the attic we have a living room/sunroom, 2 bedrooms and a storage compartment where we can see the roof with wooden structure and exposed tile in good working condition.

NOTE: There is a possibility to make an EXCHANGE.
